

The Cold War

Explore what life was like behind the Berlin Wall. Set off from the Brandenburg Gate, the icon of Berlin that stood almost untouched in no man's land for decades. Take a train along recently reopened tracks under former East Germany and hear about daring escapes as we pass stations where they actually took place. Catch a tower's-eye view of a heated former death strip area and see a still standing guard tower where ghosts kept the guards on edge at night.

10 euro per Person

Jewish Berlin

We'll trace the persecution of Jews in Berlin during the Third Reich era, see what remains, what doesn't and how it is remembered in modern day Berlin. We'll visit some collection centers for deportation, some synagogues (new and old) and some sites of radical protests against National Socialism. Learn where one man risked his life to save Jewish people from persecution, and see some beautiful and important memorials, discovering how the Jewish community is still rebuilding itself today.

10 euro per Person

Hitler and the Third Reich

From here a little Austrian man called Adolph Hitler consolidated the power of the Third Reich, commanded the destruction of his rivals, led a country toward world domination, and committed suicide. Physical remains of the Third Reich are still scattered throughout the city today. Discover the history behind the most emblematic Nazi sites in Berlin, from the rise of National Socialism to the Soviet invasion of the city during Hitler's last days, all in full color and high-definition.

10 euro per Person

Borderline Graffiti

Explore what life was like behind the Berlin Wall. Set off from the Brandenburg Gate, the icon of Berlin that stood almost untouched in no man's land for decades. Take a train along recently reopened tracks under former East Germany and hear about daring escapes as we pass stations where they actually took place. Catch a tower's-eye view of a heated former death strip area and see a still standing guard tower where ghosts kept the guards on edge at night. Special Extra: Our spray paint. Your attitude. Graffiti is allowed. Embrace your inner punk.

20 euro per Person

Off the Beaten Track

Go beyond the tourist destinations to the funk and flavor at the heart of alternative Berlin. On the border of former West Berlin, Kreuzberg was surrounded on three sides by the Berlin Wall. The districts popularity has boomed in reunified Berlin, but a pervasive tolerant attitude toward alternative living helps this area retain its exceptional flair. Explore urban development: the resulting ideologies, lifestyle, and architecture, as well as the evolution of street art and the new bohemians. Experience Alternative Berlin.

10 euro per Person

Architecture and Interior Design

Berlin is known as an open-air museum for modern architecture. From the modern government district to the beautiful classical square Gendarmenmarkt, walk through the most illustrative areas of central Berlin, as we explain the diverse and distinctive buildings along the way. Come see the architectural contrasts characteristic of this city and the symbolism and history that stands at the side of every street.

10 euro per Person